From New York Times bestselling author Helena Newbury, the second in the Fenbrook Academy series. Sheltered cellist Karen is horrified when shes forced to team up with bad boy guitarist Connor in order to graduate. But as they rehearse together, sparks fly--can they both admit their feelings, or will their pasts trap them until its too late (Full blurb below). Want more Get Losing My Balance, the 30, 000 word Neil and Clarissa novella, absolutely free just for joining my mailing list at helenanewbury.com! A self-contained romance with no cliff hanger ending! This book focuses on a new couple, but also features characters from the first book (Natasha and Darrell, Clarissa and Neil and Jasmine). You can jump in with this one or pick up Dance For Me to get more backstory on the secondary characters. Note for Dance For Me readers: this book is longer (100, 000 words) and more explicit than Dance For Me. Everyone expects her to succeed. . . Karen plays the cello like an angel, and its the only thing that makes her truly feel alive. But her fathers dream--for her to join a prestigious orchestra--leaves no time in her life for anything but music. . . not even love. Trapped on her path, she doesnt know how to rebel. Everyone expects him to fail. . . Connor plays rock guitar like the devil himself, and his ability has got him all the way from a dead-end life in Belfast to a scholarship at Fenbrook Academy. But beneath his arrogance and charm, he doesnt believe he has what it takes. Hes spent his time in New York drinking and partying, and the only future he sees...
