Excerpt: .credit is provided by the Owen Bill now before Congress. This bill authorizes the establishment of a great Foreign Finance Corporation to supply Europe with credit for raw materials. The money is to be raised by the sale of bonds in the United States. One-fourth of these bonds are to be held by the government, one-fourth by the banks, and one-half by the people of America. That is where you and I come in. By buying these bonds we can help Europe and at the same time find a safe investment to take the place of our paid-up Liberty Bonds. Through Chateau Thierry and up valley of Marne. Houses in heaps. Rebuilding already. Sheet iron for roofs. Ladders. Boy with nails. Father hammering. Beautiful villages across Marne. Medieval. Gray forts, red-roofed houses. Reflections in river. Hills behind with patchwork fields. Apparently peaceful and happy. Reconstitution...
