Excerpt: .a span, Some stopped to chat of the new man In Portugal, and his great plan For Boney brewing. How Burr d turned up again, some said, Young Irving made abroad great head, And how of Gallic power the spread We d all be ruing. Splash, splash! the midnight s fresh-laid dust The swift aids churn to mud--needs must, The troops, from off Long Island thrust, Are marching nor ward. Lord Sterling s taken, and his men All slain--the field was but a pen Of slaughter: we re the King s again From this time forward. It buffets back the lines--men s drum, Steel-fringed the scarlet ribbons come, Strong silence through the sullen hum St. George back bringing. Even the gliding of their files, In step that tells upon the miles. They wheel--cling, clang, upon the aisles Their muskets ringing! Strain pipe and bellows!...
