Blues for New Orleans: Mardi Gras and America's Creole Soul

By Roger D. Abrahams, Nick Spitzer, John F. Szwed, Robert Farris Thompson

University of Pennsylvania Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Blues for New Orleans: Mardi Gras and America's Creole Soul, Roger D. Abrahams, Nick Spitzer, John F. Szwed, Robert Farris Thompson, In the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, as the citizens of New Orleans regroup and put down roots elsewhere, many wonder what will become of one of the nation's most complex creole cultures. New Orleans emerged like Atlantis from under the sea, as the city in which some of the most important American vernacular arts took shape. Creativity fostered jazz music, made of old parts and put together in utterly new ways; architecture that commingled Norman rooflines, West African floor plans, and native materials of mud and moss; food that simmered African ingredients in French sauces with Native American delicacies. There is no more powerful celebration of this happy gumbo of life in New Orleans than Mardi Gras. In Carnival, music is celebrated along the city's spiderweb grid of streets, as all classes and cultures gather for a festival that is organized and chaotic, individual and collective, accepted and licentious, sacred and profane. The authors, distinguished writers who have long engaged with pluralized forms of American culture, begin and end...
