Excerpt: . . . their instruction when contrasted with their former character, when the H school was opened, is beyond what I ever expected to witness from such children. Although efforts are being made to withdraw them from the school in a clandestine manner, the success in that direction has been but small hitherto. To-day, as I was making some calls, a person who was asking for some assistance after I had advised her to go to the Sisters of Charity, said to me, The Sisters have applied to the Society of St. Vincent for garments for the outside children who can attend their school, to preserve them from the proselytising carried on by heretics. There's no doubt but secret altar denunciations are thundered in the ears of the faithful, warning them to protect their children from the soupers and jumpers, as Protestants are called by the priesthood. My daughter, in examining her class, a Sabbath or two ago, upon the lesson of the day, spoke of Elijahs being carried to heaven without tasting of death. She asked the class if they could name any other person who went to heaven without dying! One of the boys answered her-- Yes, ma'am. St. Patrick Went to heaven, and he never died. Does not such a state of things, such ignorance as this, demand the most serious attention from the churches of the Reformation These youths are brought up amongst us, in darkness more to be dreaded than that of Egypt....
