. Its not the crown but the head that wears it, not about the throne but the one that sits on it, neither is it the kingdom but where the wisdom and authority lies. Some people say leaders are born, some say they are made but the right answer is what you decide after reading this book. Looking for a better you, or looking for insight to bring with you in your Leadership role. The difference between you and the greatest leader that ever lived on earth lies here. In everyone there is a drop of greatness. Explore hidden secrets that lies between leaders and followers and learn to challenge your abilities because leadership is more of who you are than what you are, it is character not a position, it is a knowledge not a throne. So you can learn it, practice it and enjoy it. And if you are leading a group, firm or in government. You will not only understand the true virtue of leadership, you will be nourished with lasting clues on...
