ESCAPE FROM ASSISTED LIVING

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the landmarks of Chicago to the wrong side of the law, Betty Miles escape from assisted living and her daughter s quest to bring her home will test everyone s assumptions about old age, family, and the kindness of secrets. Sharon D Angelo thought it was a solid plan to move her mother into a senior care facility, but after just three weeks, the octogenarian is already planning her exit. Bored with craft projects and the kitchen utensil band, Betty buys a train ticket to Chicago. But having spent her life as a model mother and housewife, she worries about misbehaving; a good mother wouldn t disappear like this. Then Betty learns that her late husband-a respectable man-did a little misbehaving himself: there s a safe deposit box stashed away in Chicago, filled with who knows what. Betty has to find the truth, no matter the consequences. Sharon is devastated to find Betty gone; a good daughter wouldn t lose her mother like this. She and her husband Vince trail after Betty, discovering along the way that their struggling marriage has its own secrets to confront and that a journey can change a family just as much as it can change an individual.
