Soho Crime, 2011. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "This pulse-racer about an American Iraq-war vet is set in the art world of Beijing."- Entertainment Weekly "Lisa Brackmann's novel gets off to a fast start and never lets up. Ellie is a perfect spunky heroine. Be prepared for a wild ride."- The New York Times Book Review "Lisa Brackmann's timely and hip debut novel is a thriller with a plucky heroine, locales actual and virtual, and grounding in the Abu Ghraib scandal. Brackmann can write."- Boston Globe "A remarkable debut. Brackmann paints a mesmerizing picture of life in jittery modern Beijing."- Seattle Times "To add to the list of "good fiction set in modern China," check out Rock Paper Tiger , by Lisa Brackmann. It's a mystery/action novel that pretty much pulls off something I would have thought improbable: combining an account of Iraq-war drama (the emphasis is on Abu Ghraibtype themes), with a portrayal of the urban China of these past few years, complete with overhyped art scene, dissident bloggers, lots of young expats, and constant uncertainty about what the government will permit or crack down on."- The Atlantic "Electrifying debut . the book's exotic setting and tough heroine will definitely appeal to fans of John Burdett and Steig Larsson."-Publishers Weekly, Starred Review "Lisa Brackmann's debut novel is as slick and smart as an alley cat. As her heroine Ellie dashes across China, issues as diverse as the Iraq war, evangelical Christianity, China's art bubble, and the weird and wacky world of virtual games, are all thrown into the mix. The result is a wildly original read. Brackmann manages the difficult task of touching on recent and raw controversies-Ellie is involved, for example, in Abu Ghraibinspired prisoner abuse-without ever being pat...
