Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Modern Sermons, Vol. 10 of 10 It is to be presumed that a person will express himself. Expression characterizes personality. If God is a person, the universe may be called an expression of God. The universe is, therefore, an intimation of certain truths about God. If a work suggests the character of the worker, it is not too much to call the universe a revelation of God. If space is not a revelation of Him - and it may be - everything in space is. The heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament showeth his handiwork. The natural suggests the supernatural. Nature suggests God. Nature is pantheistic. If not all of God is in nature, God is in all nature. We may call God's being natural, therefore, for He is in nature; we also do call Him supernatural, for He is above nature. The immanence of God is a form of religious and scientific truth which I wish might be universally accepted.
