Albert Barnes Fairly Stated: Addressed to the Ministers, Elders, and People at Large of the Presbyterian Churches and Congregations in the United States Fathers Brethren, and fellow Christians - Nothing can be more evident, than that Mr, Barnes and his coadjutors are using every effort and all their influence, to prepossess the public mind in his favour, and to prejudice it against the Synod of Philadelphia, in the matter of his suspension; and this with a view to insure his acquittal, and the condemnation of the Synod, at the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, in May next. To this method of procedure they are encouraged, by the remembrance of the success which attended a similar course, when Mr. Barnes was brought before the General Assembly in 1831. Their system of action then, was, in substance, the very same which they are now pursuing. The explanations which Mr. Barnes gave of the sermon which was the cause of his prosecution at that time, were published, and sent throughout the length and breadth of the church. The sermon was also republished, and copies of it were distributed largely in the western part of our church; and the editor of the Philadelphian issued a large number of extra copies of that paper, containing the defence of Mr. Barnes, and a crimination of his accusers, and sent them, far and near, to ministers and elders, and other influential individuals, in various parts of our land. Nor was the enlisting of influence in the favour of Mr. Barnes confined to the Presbyterian church. I he editors of...
