Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Navy of the United States To My Countrymen: I trust that I shall not be thought insincere, when I say that the publication of the following pages gives me no pleasure. As an American, proud of my native land, with whose prosperity, for seven generations, my family has been identified, I can not contemplate this picture with any other feeling than pain; and although I have the consciousness of having done my duty, and have received the most flattering marks of the approval of my countrymen from all parts of the United States, both by letters and by verbal communications, yet these sources of gratification afford me little compensation for the destruction of an entire navy and the general disgrace to the country of this exposure. My connection with the trial which has thus resulted, was apparently purely accidental. I received one day a telegram from Washington, signed by Mr. Mattingly, a gentleman with whom I had had a slight previous acquaintance, in these words: Isherwood has sworn that there is no advantage in...
